Serving in Jamaica w/Caribbean Graduate School of Theology

To Our Praying Friends:

Christian greetings from the campus of the Caribbean Graduate School of Theology! It is hoped that you are well as you continue to be a blessing.

I write to thank you sincerely for your fervent prayerful and otherwise support of the Graduate School and to use this opportunity to share with you our most recent experience of God's favor.

Firstly, we received report from the country's Accrediting Agency, the University Council of Jamaica, regarding their reaccreditation visit last June. We view the evaluation as being accurate, impartial and praise the Lord, favorable. The institution is in the process of responding to the report and will commit to taking their recommendations seriously.

Secondly, we reached another landmark when we gathered on Saturday, March 29, 2008 at one of the most auspicious hotels in the Corporate Area for the first MBA graduation! Reports from the same were more than encouraging. The function was featured in the leading printed media newspapers, The Gleaner and The Observer . Advisor to the Governor General of Jamaica, Dr. Simon Clarke delivered the message. An outstanding business leader in the country, Mr. Robert Levy, C.D., was conferred a Master of Arts degree (Honoris Causa). The sentiments of the attendees and the graduates can be summed up in one word: Magnificent! To God, we give the glory!

Lastly, certainly not the least, the leading Media House in the island, RJR Communications Group, has requested permission for me to speak on Sunday, April 13th 2008. Coverage of the service will be aired on RJR 94.5 FM @ 11.00am Sunday morning.

I crave prayers for the deliver of the Word, as well as the other proceedings. We thank God for the opportunity to preach the Gospel and promote the Graduate School, doing His will.

CGST continues to carry out its purpose under the coverage of purpose, prayer and passion.

May God continue to bless you as you bless others.
